Internet Access Policy

(Reg Charity - Storth Playing Field - No. 503690)

Storth Playing Field Charity (No. 503690) grants you access to its Wi-Fi network providing you agree to abide by this policy. This connection is provided free by b4rn.org.uk

It is charity policy not to allow unsupervised internet access to anyone under 18 or to vulnerable adults. You must ensure under 18s and vulnerable adults under your care follow this policy, or internet access will be withdrawn.

Users are reminded that their use of the internet will be directly traceable to our internet address with time and date. You must not visit sites or send communications which are:

- Illegal under current law
- Defamatory, threatening or intimidatory or which could be classed as harassment
- Contain obscene, profane or abusive language
- Contain pornographic material whether in writing, pictures, films or video clips
- Contain offensive material regarding sex, race, religion, disability, sexual orientation or any other legally protected characteristic
- Infringe third party rights or are otherwise unlawful

The charity reserves the right to block access to any site.

We cannot guarantee that inappropriate content will be blocked. If you gain access to a site that you deem inappropriate, close your web browser immediately.

You are responsible for your own anti-virus and anti-malware precautions. The charity will not be held responsible for any damage to your equipment whilst connected to its network.

You should not attempt to gain access to restricted areas of the network or to any password protected information without being duly authorised to do so.

The charity reserves the right to protect its network and systems by recording user ACTIVITY but not CONTENT. That is to say, no CONTENT will be captured but that a list of surfing activity may be recorded.

We do not charge you for using the Wi-Fi. At times for any reason it may not be available. We may also control the types of material that can be sent or received over the Wi-Fi. Access may be removed at any time without giving any reason. Your use of the Wi-Fi is at your own risk and we are not responsible to you for any damages, losses, costs or expenses you suffer because the Wi-Fi is unavailable, does not operate as expected or causes loss or damage of any sort.

The SSID is HeronHall and the current password is storthplayingfield.
