

Storth Playing Field – Safeguarding and safety

A registered charity - Storth Playing Field - No. 503690

Storth Playing Field is committed to making an environment that is safe for all users no matter what their age.

You should ensure children and vulnerable adults in your care are properly supervised at all times.

We can only make the hall and field safe if people who use the hall are our eyes and ears.

If you are concerned about any user or see circumstances that could lead to hurt or harm please report it to us.

Ring Andrew Skinner on 07362 593076, any committee member or email safeguarding@heronhall.co.uk

All our policies, instructions and forms for reporting any concerns are available on our website www.heronhall.co.uk. Paper versions are in a folder in the kitchen. Any other reports to report@heronhall.co.uk

Always if immediate harm is possible ring 999. Other phone numbers are displayed.
